

Rachel Magennis is a consultant radiologist, working at Wythenshawe Hospital, now part of MFT. She subspecialises in GI radiology and pelvic floor imaging.

Rachel leads on the Radiology Events and Learning process in MFT and previously co-chaired the National RCR REALM conference in Manchester. She serves as faculty on an external teaching programme delivering 'human factors' training.