

Doone Boorman

I am a 5th year medical student at the University of Manchester and Salford Royal is my base hospital. I have a keen interest in anaesthesia and surgery, and I am excited to be a part of this society. My hobbies outside of medicine include running and cooking.