

I am a Consultant Anaesthetist at Royal Oldham Hospital, having graduated from the Universities of St Andrews and Manchester and entering foundation training in 2009. I joined Manchester Medical Society as a trainee and has been a regular attendee at meetings ever since. I have interests in Paediatric Anaesthesia and medical education and training, and am currently paediatric lead at Oldham, and I co-organise the regional Final FRCA SOE examination course.