

Dr Sally Jewsbury is a consultant in Genitourinary Medicine based at The Northern Contraception, Sexual Health and HIV Service at MRI. She is clinical lead at the Trafford branch and runs a weekly designated clinic for gender diverse individuals. She is also the MRI site lead for SuppoRTT - a programme to support trainees returning from an extended period out of training.