My name is Srikar Gattu, current Year 4 Lancaster Medical student. I am a passionate medical student with a strong interest in medical education and advocacy. I strive to enhance learning experiences, represent student needs, and contribute to the advancement of healthcare through both education and clinical practice.