

Dr Timothy Kwaskowski is a specialty registrar in oral surgery at the University Dental Hospital of Manchester. He completed his undergraduate dental degree at King's College London and foundation training in South Croydon. He undertook dental core training in London and Manchester in oral surgery and oral & maxillofacial surgery, followed by a year as an SAS grade doctor in both the University Dental Hospital of Manchester and Croydon University Hospitals. In his free time, he loves travel, photography and yo-yo. You can see his tricks on his Instagram @tkwask!