

Zack Balaban

I'm an ACCS Anaesthetics trainee currently based at the Royal Preston Hospital, but will be rotating to East Lancashire Hospitals in August 2024. I've graduated from Swansea Medical School in 2020, and returned to my hometown of Bury following that. I'm currently studying for the primary FRCA, and will be sitting the MCQ in September. In my downtime I'm a guitarist, and play with my band throughout venues in the Northwest.
